

Please DO NOT allow cellular phone use aboard airborne flights. The stress of flying is lessened by a quiet cabin. I can not even begin to imagine the rude behavior that will occur as a result of phone use on planes.

The public good is more important than the cellular provider's anticipated profits that would result from this change.